

ANTHONY SUEN MING KIT

Born in Hong Kong, Anthony Suen is a hooper, choreographer, instructor and a musical theatre performer.

He is a graduate from The Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts majoring in Musical Theatre Dance. During his study, he was awarded a scholarship to a musical theatre training program "CAP21" in New York. He represented the Academy and the City Contemporary Dance Company to perform in Singapore and Perth respectively. He is certified with the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing (ISTD) Advanced (1) Tap Certificate and the Australia's Commonwealth Society of Teachers of Dancing (CSTD) Gold Star Tap Certificate with Honours. In 2002, Anthony established "Tap Ensemble" (www.tapensemble.hk), a tap dance company with the mission of promoting tap through professional performance and education. He produced an original tap dance theatre show 《A Place for Us》 and also the company for 《New Year's Eve Carnival》 in 2006. He was one of the choreographers of the Hong Kong Dance Alliance's production 《Dance Platform》 in 2002. In 2008, he choreographed the dance piece 《My Tap Blog》 at the 《Emerging Choreographers Series Final Episode - danzzzzling》. He also participated in the New York Tap Festival and studied tap with various Japanese tap maestros (Hideboh, Yukiko "Smilie" Misumi, RonxII, Shinichi Matsumoto... etc).

He has performed in numerous musicals including :《Merrily We Roll Along》, 《42ndStreet》, 《Crazy For You》, 《Best Of Broadway》, 《Cheers!》, 《Starry Starry Night》, 《Hong Kong Nocturne》, 《Vagabond》, 《Pippin》 played the lead "The Leading Player", 《2004 New Year's Eve Carnival》, 《A Life Journey Through Musicals》(performed in Tunisia "Le Bulletin du festival" 2005), 《Musical Journey A to Z》, 《Postcards from Broadway》, 《Annie》, 《Othello》 played the lead "Othello", 《DA》 (a translated play), The Hong Kong Arts Festival programme 《The Legend of the White Snake》 & played the 2nd lead "Ah Kwai" in 《And Then There's You》, A dance theatre 《Butterfly Effect》 and Andy Wong In Concert 《One Heart One Voice》.

Anthony joined the Hong Kong Disneyland as the leading male vocalist of 《High School Musical Live!》and《The Golden Mickeys》in 2008. He is trained by the renowned Derek Anthony on classical vocalism.